TEMPLE UNIVERSITY

Temple took the top score for the sixth straight meet as the Owls posted a 339.200 to defeat host William & Mary 331.800 and Army 325.500 at Kaplan Arena on Saturday evening.

Temple flooded the standing in floor exercise, as the Owls took the top three scores. John Leonard earned the Owls top score of 14.800. Brett Statman's score of 14.600 earned him second place, while Allan Malone was a close third-place finisher, with a count of 14.500.

Statman and Leonard were consistent over the course of their events on Saturday night, as the two gymnasts tied for second overall on the vault with like scores 14.400. Jeff Zack matched his teammates with the same score. Malone, Matt Martin and Michael Bittner tied for the Owls' second-best score in the event, tying for seventh place overall with a score of 14.000. Bittner earned Temple's highest score on pommel horse, 14.800, placing second overall. Alex Tighe posted a 14.500 to tie for third place in the event. Taylor Brana earned Temple's third best score on pommel, sporting a 13.900. Senior Chris Mooney placed just short of Brana, taking a 13.800.

On rings, Dashiell Sears' score of 14.500 was good enough for the runner-up spot and for Temple's highest score. Brana and Blake Collins tied for third and for second-best team score with matching tallies of 14.300.

Temple placed three gymnasts inside the top 10 in the parallel bars event, as Logan Fiery earned the Owls' best score, 14.000, for fourth place. Brendan Williams earned fifth overall with a count of 13.900. while Tighe held a close sixth place score of 13.800 on the apparatus.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM/MARY-Sat.

William and Mary equaled its best score of the season and placed second in a tri-meet on Senior Night at Kaplan Arena on Saturday evening. No. 10 Temple earned the team title with a 339.2 and was followed by the Tribe (331.8) and Army.

Tribe gymnasts took the top three spots in all-around, as sophomore Daniel Potemski won with an 83.5 and was followed by freshman J.J. Jindra (82.6) and junior Futa Ikeda (78.7). Jindra's mark represented a career best.

The College opened the meet on floor where it registered a 54.5. Junior Matt Burns led the squad by equaling a season high (13.9), while Potemski and freshman Michael Deitz posted a 13.7 and a 13.5, respectively.

Potemski equaled a career best and established a season high on pommel horse with a 14.5 - a score that ranks fourth in the Tribe's record book. Junior Kris Yeager also moved into the program's all-time top-10 list with a career-high 14.0.

Jindra and Ikeda tallied career highs on rings with a 14.3 and a 14.2, respectively, en route to helping the Tribe post a season-best 56.7 in the event. Jindra's score ranks tied for fourth in W&M's record book, while Ikeda's mark is ninth. Potemski and senior Steve Deutsch also came up big with a pair of 14.1's.

Potemski claimed the vault title with a 14.7, while Jindra's career-high 14.1 also contributed to the team's score of 56.6. Deitz and Burns both registered a 13.9 in the event - a score that represented a season best for Burns.

In the fifth rotation of the evening, W&M posted a 55.5 on parallel bars. Potemski and Jindra tied for first among all competitors in the event with a 14.1. With the performance, Jindra established a career high.

The College closed out the evening on high bar and earned a 52.5. Sophomore Sam Patterson's career-best 13.7 led the squad, while Jindra recorded a 13.3.
