

Please go to the following address for a report from the MPSF Conference (copy and paste).

www.mpsports.org (new address).

Usually available Wed. mornings.

*****

(Please see pages 4-5 for Stanford Open and Navy Open individual event results.)

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN:

The No. 2-ranked University of Michigan captured the team title at the Stanford Open with a team tally of 433.050 Saturday (Jan. 25) at Stanford's Burnham Pavilion. The U-M effort was strong enough to knock off No. 6 Cal, which took second with a 430.300, while No. 4 Stanford took third with a 429.00. Washington, a club team, came in fourth with a 363.65.

On still rings, senior Alex Bubnov and junior Adrian de los Angeles scored 15.20 and 15.10, respectively. Senior Jordan Gaarenstroom followed with a 14.80.

On vault, in the second rotation, de los Angeles once again led the way, scoring a 15.30, while Tristian Perez-Rivera put forth a 15.05. In the third rotation (parallel bars), Syque Caesar posted a 15.30.

The fourth rotation brought forth a troublesome effort, as U-M faltered in scoring a 64.35, with the highest mark coming from junior Nick Hunter who scored a 14.40. Michigan rebounded in the floor exercise in the way it needed with a superb 76.20, as Perez-Rivera (15.55) and senior Sam Mikulak with a 15.50 -- paced the effort. De los Angeles followed closely with a 15.45.

U-M closed out the night on pommel horse with a 72.75 to seal the victory, as Nolan Novak and Dylan James pitched in matching 14.65s.

De los Angeles took 2nd in the all-around with an 86.80 in his first all-around competition of the season.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS:

The Fighting Illini captured a 428.450-425.450 victory over Ohio State in a head to head competition Sunday afternoon at Huff Hall. The Orange and Blue clinched the win on high bar in the sixth and final rotation after being neck-and-neck with the Buckeyes.

Illinois took three of the top five spots in floor exercise, with Chandler Eggleston leading the way in first with a score of 15.300. C.J. Maestas and Fred Hartville followed in third and fourth place, respectively. Maestas scored a 14.650, and Hartville scored 14.550.

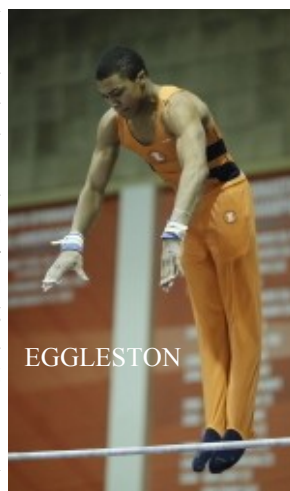

The Orange and Blue beat Ohio State 71.950-71.150, on pommel horse, taking second, third, and fourth, and being beaten by Ohio State's Michael Newburger (with a 16.20). Jacob Tilsley placed second with a score of 14.80.. Matt Foster followed in third with 14.700. Chad Mason won fourth with his score of 14.500.

On still rings, Illinois defeated the Buckeyes 72.500-70.650. C.J. Maestas earned his second rings title of the season with a score of 15.400. Illinois took four of the top five slots, with Max Mayr and Cameron Rogers tying for third (14.500) and Tom Gibbs coming in fifth with a score of 14.400.

Illinois won vault, with Eggleston narrowly beating out Hartville 15.100-15.050. Maestas took fourth in the event, scoring 14.600.

The Illini lost their first event on parallel bars, OSU leading 71.300-68.100. Parallel bars was a weaker event for the Illini, with Jordan Valdez and Cameron Rogers being the only Illinois gymnasts in the top five. Valdez took second with a 14.400, and Rogers placed fifth with 14.150.

High Bar was a close race between the two teams (69.950-69.550). The Fighting Illini clinched the dual victory with a solid performance from Valdez. Valdez took the event title with a score of 15.200. Chandler Eggleston closed up the top five for the Illini with a score of 14.000.

EGGLESTON

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA:

Four Gophers won event titles as the No. 7 Golden Gopher men's gymnastics team hosted a dual meet with top-ranked Oklahoma at the Sports Pavilion Saturday afternoon.

Minnesota improved its overall team score for the second-straight week but ultimately fell to the Sooners, 431.900-427.650. The Gophers also beat their previous season-high scores in still rings (73.450) and floor exercise (73.450).

Junior Ellis Mannon took first on pommel horse (14.950), junior Sean Bauer won the still rings competition, sophomore Paul Montague, Jr. finished first on parallel bars (14.800), and senior Zack Chase won the vault (15.200) to lead the Gophers against the Sooners. Oklahoma picked up titles on floor exercise and high bar.

In addition to his win on still rings, Bauer tied for third in the floor exercise (14.900). He also scored a 14.500 on vault.

Matt Frey and Justin (Yoshi) Morinishi both had strong days competing in three events for the Gophers. Chase's 15.200 on vault was the Gophers' highest score of the meet as well.

The Gophers opened up the meet in style on the floor exercise, beating their score on the event from last week by 3.800 points. The Gophers executed on every single routine in the event, with no gymnast recording a score below 14.500. Bauer and Morinishi led Minnesota with scores of 14.900 on floor.

Execution issues hurt their scores on the pommel horse. Ellis Mannon led Minnesota on pommel horse with a score of 14.950.

Minnesota's final performance of the meet came from junior captain Steve Jaciuk on the high bar, solidifying the Gophers' season-best 427.650.

The Gophers were also scheduled to host the University of Chicago-Illinois in today's meet, but the Flames were unable to make it to the meet due to transportation issues.

BAUER

OHIO STATE:

Ohio State fell to Illinois, 428.450-425.450, Sunday afternoon at Huff Hall in its first dual meet of the season.

Two Buckeyes won individual event titles against the Illini, as redshirt senior Michael Newburger posted a 16.200 on pommel horse to claim his second consecutive title on the event and freshman Jacob Dastrup notched a career-high 14.850 on parallel bars to claim first place overall.

NEWBURGER

On floor exercise, led by junior Danny Steiner who scored a 14.850 on the event to finish in second place. Behind Steiner, senior Brandan Jones tallied a career-high 14.500 and Dastrup notched a career-high 14.450 to round out the top three Buckeye scorers on the event.

The Buckeyes moved to pommel horse for the second rotation, where Dastrup scored a 14.450 to place second on the team and fifth overall.

Junior co-captain Drew Moling paved the way for the team on rings for the second consecutive week, scoring a 14.750 to finish second.

On vault freshman Logan Melander scored a 14.700 to finish third overall. Behind Melander, redshirt freshman Emeric Quade notched a 14.550 and Dastrup and Moling each earned a 14.400.

Dastrup led the Scarlet and Gray on parallel bars in the fifth rotation. Freshman Andrew Rickly and senior Misha Koudinov each earned scores of 14.200 to tie for third place overall.

Ohio State ended the meet on high bar, where senior Alex Nork placed second with a 14.300, Johnson scored a 14.200 to claim third place and Moling tallied a 14.100 to round out the top Buckeye scorers with a fourth-place finish.

PENN STATE:

Penn State powered past the competition on the way to a first-place finish (420.900) at the Navy Open Saturday, Jan. 25 at Macdonough Hall. As a team, the Nittany Lions swept the field in all six events, while also picking up three individual titles along the way.

Other team scores were: William and Mary-414.25, Navy-408.10, Temple-398.05 and Springfield-391.80.

Sophomore Trevor Howard led the way with a trio of top five finishes, including a first-place finish on the high bar, winning by a score of 14.600. Howard also placed second on the parallel bars (14.400) and on the still rings, swinging to a season-high score of 15.750. Sophomore Alexis Torres secured a first-place finish in the floor exercise (14.850), while also registering a third-place finish on the vault with a score of 14.400. Rounding out the group of first-place finishers was junior Craig Hernandez, who captured his first individual title of the year, posting a season-high score of 14.65 on the pommel horse.

On the high bar, Penn State captured the top three positions, featuring Howard's first-place finish. Junior Matt Felleman followed closely behind with a 14.400, good for second place, while redshirt freshman Leroy Clarke closed out the top three slots with a third-place finish (14.100).

HOWARD

The Nittany Lions claimed spots two, three and four on the vault, led by Felleman, who recorded a 14.500 second-place performance. Torres and junior Ismael Sanabria followed with scores of 14.450 and 14.400 for third and fourth place, respectively.

Freshman Christian McSwain also set a season-high mark, securing a second-place finish on the pommel horse with a score of 14.400.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA:

Nebraska faced former conference rival Air Force on Saturday afternoon, winning their home opener with a team score of 420.650. The Falcons had a score of 415.300.

The Huskers started off on floor exercise with Freshman Travis Gollott helped lead the team, grabbing a score of 14.35, the second highest on the event for Nebraska. Former All-American on floor, Grant Perdue, earned his first score above 15 for the season, earning a 15.05 on the event.

NU then moved to pommel horse with Wyatt Aycock scoring a 14.55 on his routine. Sophomore Ethan Lottman quickly followed suit, scoring a solid 14.85. He was immediately followed by Eric Schryver, who came into the meet ranked No. 7 nationally on the event. The senior earned a 14.65, slotting him behind Lottman for the meet.

LOTTMAN

Nebraska finished out the first half of the meet on still rings. Junior Grant Perdue made his first appearance on the event since 2012 memorable, earning a solid 14.00. Robbie Kocks made a real impression on the event, earning a 15.40 for the second meet in the row.

The Huskers struggled slightly on vault, their fourth rotation. Senior Wyatt Aycock and Perdue both received a 14.80, tying for second best on the team. All-arounder C.J. Schaaf gave the best vault of the afternoon, earning a 14.95.

Nebraska struggled to overcome their difficult fourth rotation, seeing mixed results on their parallel bars performances. Sophomore and returning All-American Sam Chamberlain earned the highest score of the meet on the event, grabbing a 14.90. Schaaf and Aycock, each scored a 14.15.

The Huskers finished out the meet on high bar, struggling hard to finish the meet strong. Klein took home the highest score on the event for Nebraska, earning a 13.50.

CONTINUED NEXT PAGE

ECAC CONFERENCE:

WILLIAM AND MARY:

William and Mary placed second at the Navy Open on Saturday afternoon. Fifth-ranked Penn State claimed the team title with a 420.9 and was followed by W&M (414.25), No. 15 Navy (408.1), Temple (398.05) and Springfield (391.8).

Tribe gymnasts claimed three individual event titles. Senior Landon Funicello posted the top scores on rings (15.8) and parallel bars (14.9), while sophomore Neal Courter won the vault title (14.9). Additionally, sophomore Keaton Ackerman (80.6) and junior J.J. Jindra (80.05) recorded the top two scores as all-arounders.

Courter (14.6) and Funicello (14.45), who placed second and third, respectively led the FX team. Junior Michael Deitz also posted a top-10 performance with a 13.7.

Ackerman (14.1) and junior Jason Wang (14.0) were the College's top scorers on pommel horse. Junior Peter Ten Eyck (13.95) and Jindra (13.45) also finished among the top 10 in the event.

Funicello's winning score of 15.8 on rings nearly matched the school record that he established last week, while Jindra's 14.15 also helped the Tribe tally its best mark of the season in the event (69.75).

On vault (70.2) W&M was led by Courter's winning score of 14.9. Deitz also came up big with a 14.3.

Funicello scored a 14.9 to win the PB event.

On high bar Deitz nearly matched his career high with a 14.0, while Jindra and senior Sam Patterson posted a 13.9 and a 13.6, respectively.

U.S. NAVAL ACADEMY:

Navy had a strong effort on Saturday afternoon in the 2014 Navy Open. Competing before a packed Macdonough Hall crowd, the Mids compiled their highest team total in two years as they registered a 408.1 score on their way to a third place finish. No. 5 Penn State earned the team title with 420.9 points, while No. 12 William & Mary finished runner-up at 414.25.

The underclassmen trio of Connor Westrick, Mitchell Larios and Jonny Tang led the Mids as they each recorded third place results in individual events.

Westrick was Navy's highest scorer in pommel horse action as he registered a 14.4 score for his routine.

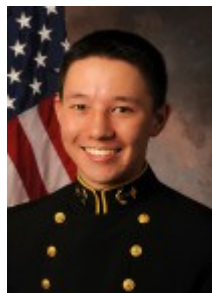

Larios led the Mids in parallel bar action as he earned a 14.2 score and ranking of third place.

Tang rounded out the trio of third-place finishers as he completed the all-around competition with 79.25 points. In individual events, the freshman earned top-10 finishes in the high bar (fourth, 14.0) and the pommel horse (tenth, 13.45). In floor exercise action, junior Eric Viscardi was the top finishing Mid as he turned in a 14.05 score, good enough for fourth place.

Sophomore Andrew Potts was the third Navy gymnast to finish amongst the top 10 on the pommel horse as he joined Westrick and Tang with a 14.0 score and fifth place standing.

On the rings Junior Thomas Goodell led the way with a 14.55 score and fourth place finish.

In the all-around, Tang finished with scores of 79.25, for third and his score was 0.55 points better than Junghans, who netted a 78.7 and a fifth place finish.

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY:

Temple finished fourth at the Navy Open on Saturday night with a total score of 398.05. Penn State won the Open with a score of 420.90.

William and Mary (414.25) finished second, and Navy (408.10) was third. Springfield (391.80) finished fifth.

Evan Eigner had the third best score of the open in the still rings event. He had a difficulty score of 15.8, and received a 9.2 and 9.3 execution score from the judges to earn a 15.05, the best score of any Owls in the Open.

Jon Rydzefski had the top score for Temple in the vault event, 14.15, which was the eight highest in the meet.

Rydzefski once again led the way for the Owls on the parallel bars, with the seventh highest score of 13.9.

Brendan Williams had the sixth best score, in floor exercise, earning a 13.9.

On the pommel horse Charles Baldi posted a top ten score in the event with a 13.6.

SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE:

Sophomore Jon Zirna placed fourth in the all-around competition to lead Springfield College at the Navy Open on Saturday.

Zirna finished with a score of 79.100. His best event of the day was the parallel bars, placing fourth with a score of 14.1.

Ryan Ponce was sixth on the still rings with a score of 14.4. Derek Taranto was the Pride's top finisher on the high bar, placing seventh with a mark of 13.7. Tucker McClure led Springfield on the pommel horse, finishing eighth with a score of 13.9.

TOP TEAM SCORES THIS WEEK

Michigan	433.05	Nebraska	420.65
Oklahoma	431.90	Air Force	415.30
California	430.30	William/Mary	414.25
Stanford	429.90	Navy	408.10
Illinois	428.45	Temple	398.05
Ohio State	425.45	Springfield	391.80
Penn St.	420.90	Washington	363.65
Nebraska	420.65

COLLEGE GYMNASTICS ASSOCIATION

STANFORD OPEN

INDIVIDUAL EVENT RESULTS

January 25, 2014
Compiled by Jerry Wright

BAILEY

ZAREMASKI

ANGELES

TEAM SCORES

1. Michigan	433.05
2. California	430.30
3. Stanford	429.90
4. Washington	363.65

ALL AROUND

1. Donothan Bailey, Calif.	88.90
2. Adrain de los Angeles, Mich.	86.80
3. Kyle Zemeir, Calif.	85.90

FLOOR EXERCISE

1. Tristian Perez-Rivera, Mich.	15.55
2. Sam Mikulak, Mich.	15.50
3. Adrain de los Angeles, Mich.	15.45
3. Mike Levy, Stan.	15.45
5. Akash Modi, Stan.	15.25
6. Jordan Gaarenstroom, Mich.	14.90

POMMEL HORSE

1. Donothan Bailey, Calif.	15.45
2. Taka Kwada, Calif.	15.25
3. Akash Modi, Stan.	15.10
4. Dylan James, Mich.	14.85
5. Nolan Novak, Mich.	14.65
6. Matt Freeman, Mich.	14.55

RINGS

1. Dennis Zaremaski, Stan.	15.95
2. Alex Budnov, Mich.	15.20
3. Jeffrey Langenstein, Calif.	15.15
4. Adrain de los Angeles, Mich.	15.10
5. Kyle Zemeir, Calif.	14.95
6. Donothan Bailey, Calif.	14.85
6. Mike Levy, Stan.	14.85

VAULT

1. Adrain de los Angeles, Mich.	15.30
2. Tristian Perez-Rivera, Mich.	15.05
3. Akash Modi, Stan.	14.90
4. Syque Caesar, Mich.	14.85
4. Taylor Seaton, Stan.	14.85
6. Chris Turner, Stan.	14.60

PARALLEL BARS

1. Syque Caesar, Mich.	15.30
2. Cameron Backes, Stan.	14.85
3. Kyle Zemier, Calif.	14.80
4. Sam Mikulak, Mich.	14.75
5. David Frankl, Stan.	14.50
5. Donothan Bailey, Calif.	14.50

HORIZONTAL BAR

1. Donothan Bailey, Calif.	14.95
2. Cale Robinson, Stan.	14.60
3. Nick Hunter, Mich.	14.40
4. Kevin Wolting, Calif.	14.00
5. Adrain de los Angeles, Mich.	13.95
6. Capri Sano, Calif.	13.65

Apologies for any errors in the above. It is a little tough to take this off several score sheets.

CAESAR

COLLEGE GYMNASTICS ASSOCIATION

NAVY OPEN

INDIVIDUAL EVENT RESULTS

January 25, 2014
Compiled by Jerry Wright

ACKERMAN

TORRES

HERNANDEZ

FUNICIELLO

TEAM SCORES

1. Penn State	420.90
2. William/Mary	414.24
3. Navy	408.10
4. Temple	398.05
5. Springfield	391.80

ALL AROUND

1. Keaton Ackerman, W/M	80.60
2. J. J. Jindra, W/M	80.05
3. Jonathon Tang, Navy	79.25
4. Jon Zirna, Springfield	79.10
5. Chris Junghans, Navy	78.70
6. Aris Sabbagh, W/M	76.60

FLOOR EXERCISE

1. Alexis Torres, Penn St.	14.85
2. Neal Courter, W/M	14.60
3. Landon Funicello, W/M	14.45
4. Eric Viscardi, Navy	14.05
5. Andrew Potts, Navy	14.00
6. Brandon Williams, Tem	13.90
7. Chris Junghans, Navy	13.80
8. Dominic DiFurio, Penn St.	13.75
8. Ismael Sanabria, Penn St.	13.75

POMMEL HORSE

1. Craig Hernandez, Penn St.	14.65
2. Christian McSwain, Penn St.	14.40
2. Connor Westrick, Navy	14.40
4. Keaton Ackerman, W/M	14.10
5. Jason Wang, W/M	14.00
5. Andrew Potts, Navy	14.00
7. Peter Van Eyck, W/M	13.95
8. Tucker McClure, Spfld	13.90

RINGS

1. Landon Funicello, W/M	15.80
2. Trevor Howard, Penn St.	15.75
3. Evan Eigner, Tem	15.05
4. Thomas Goodell, Navy	14.55
4. Igmarr Jochumsson, Penn St.	14.55
6. Ryan Ponce, Spfld	14.40
7. J. J. Jindra, W/M	14.15
8. Nestor Rodriguez, Penn St.	14.10

VAULT

1. Neal Courter, W/M	14.90
2. Matt Felleman, Penn St.	14.50
3. Alexis Torres, Penn St.	14.40
3. Ismael Sanabria, Penn St.	14.40
5. Michael Dietz, W/M	14.30
6. ???
7. Trisan Duverglas, Penn St.	14.20
8. Jon Rydzefski, Tem	14.15

PARALLEL BARS

1. Landon Funicello, W/M	14.90
2. Trevor Howard, Penn St.	14.40
3. Mitchell Larios, Navy	14.20
4. Jon Zirna, Spfld	14.10
5. Dominic DiFurio, Penn St.	14.00
5. Leroy Clarke, Penn St.	14.00
7. Connor Westrick, Navy	13.90
7. Jon Rydzefski, Tem	13.90

COURTER

HOWARD

HORIZONTAL BAR

1. Trevor Howard, Penn St.	14.60
2. Matt Felleman, Penn St.	14.40
3. Leroy Clarke, Penn St.	14.10
4. Jonathan Tang, Navy	14.00
4. Michael Dietz, W/M	14.00
6. J. J. Jindra, W/M	13.90
7. Derek Taranto, Spfld	13.70
7. Dominic DiFurio, Penn St.	13.70