Men's Weekly Reports

February 23, 2014

Compiled by Jerry Wright

Performances at the 2014 Winter Cup Challenge will help determine the 15 men who will comprise the U.S. Men's Senior National Team through the 2014 P&G Gymnastics Championships in Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 21-24. The six members of the 2013 World Championships squad, plus the two World alternates, retain their spots on the national team. The remaining seven spots will be determined based on the following criteria: the top two ranked all-around athletes who are not already on the senior national team; two based on the National Team Points System; two athletes selected by the Men's Program Committee; and one selected by the national team coordinator.

ANGELES

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

The University of Iowa got its first win of the season as they defeated the University of Illinois-Chicago Flames 431.400-409.900 Sunday afternoon in Chicago.

The Hawkeyes dominated the entire meet as they had leading team scores in every event and first place finishes in four out of six events.

On floor, four Hawkeyes took the top-four finishes as redshirt sophomore Cyrus Dobre-Mofid won the event with a score of 14.850. Finishing out the top spots were junior Brandon Field (14.600), freshman Mark Springett (14.550), who made his Hawkeye debut, and sophomore Jack Boyle (14.400).

Iowa was led by sophomore Del Vecchio Orozco on the pommel horse as he tallied a 14.100 and took the runner-up spot. Sophomore Emmanuel Monroy did not trail behind far, as he scored a 14.050 and finished third, followed by sophomore Doug Sullivan with a 13.850.

The rings were conquered by Iowa, as Boyle recorded a season-high 15.600 and took the top spot in the event. Finishing in second was redshirt senior Matt McGrath with a 15.400 and sophomore Matt Loochtan took third with a 15.050.

Dobre-Mofid, once again, boosted the Hawkeyes with a runner-up finish on vault as he recorded a 14.500. Field took third with a score of 14.150 and junior William Albert tied for fourth with a 14.100.

On parallel bars, Dobre-Mofid helped record another season-high with a 15.000 and win his second event of the afternoon. The Hawkeyes finished out the top-four spots with redshirt junior Lance Alberhasky and Boyle both tying for second with scores of 14.900 and junior Mitchell Landau taking fourth with a 14.350.

The Hawkeyes finished in dominating fashion by taking the top-five spots on horizontal bar. Boyle won the event with a score of 14.700 and freshman Cory Paterson took the runner-up spot with a 14.550. Rounding out the top-five were Dobre-Mofid (14.500), Landau (14.150), and Alberhasky (13.950).

As the lone Hawkeye in the all-around competition, Boyle took first out of four competitors with a season-high 86.600. The score also broke former Iowa standout Javier Balboa's all-around record.

ECAC CONFERENCE

SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE

Another impressive performance from sophomore Jon Zirna helped pace the Springfield College men's gymnastics team to a first-place finish at the New England Invitational Championships at Blake Arena on Sunday evening.

Springfield, who registered 402.350 points, outlasted teams from MIT, Brockport State College, University of Vermont and Boston University to find themselves at the top of the podium come days end.

Zirna placed first in the all-around competition, finishing the day with 79.450 points and two first-place finishes in the pommel horse and the parallel bars.

On the pommel horse, Zirna scored an impressive 14.700, while senior James Hennin with a score of 14.200.

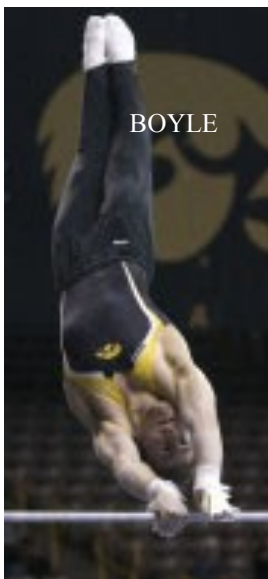

ished atop the leader-board with a 14.700 on vault. DeSantis finished second with a 14.00.

McClure finished first overall on the high bar with a score of 13.250, while Taranto took second with a 13.050.

UNIV. OF ILLINOIS-CHICAGO

Univ. of Ill-Chicago closed their season out at home falling short to the Iowa Hawkeyes, 431.400-409.900.

Lukasz Adamczyk dominated on the pommel horse, taking first by .550 with a score of 14.650.
