ECAC CONFERENCE

ARMY

Army took second at the 25th Annual West Point Open Friday night, led by a third place finish from plebe Cole Casanova in the all-around. Penn State won the team title with 424.85, Army second-416.35, Navy third-415.80, Springfield fourth-403.20 and Temple fifth-398.05.

Casanova earned a score of 82.200 to earn third in just his second collegiate meet. Three-time all-around champion Jesse Glenn elected to sit out of the all-around, not competing on still rings.

Army opened the night on parallel bars with Glenn pacing the team with a score of 14.400, tying for sixth. Nathan Goff tied for 10th with a score of 14.250 and Sam Kusnitz tied for 13th with a mark of 14.000.

Moving to high bar Glenn and Leo Genders tied for second with scores of 14.500. Goff's score of 14.200 was good enough to tie for sixth.

Kusnitz's score of 14.700 led the way for Army on Floor Exercise and placed second overall. Glenn wasn't far behind with a score of 14.650 to tie for third. Casanova placed eighth with a score of 14.250.

Army struggled on pommel horse. Andre Hufnagel led the way with a score of 13.750 to place sixth.

Scores of 13.850 from both Ryan Wilson and Herman led the way on still rings.

On vault, trailing service academy rival Navy heading into the final rotation, Army wowed the crowd of 1,113 led by scores of 14.500 from both Glenn and Genders to tie for third.

NAVY

Navy began its 2016 campaign on Friday

with a strong evening of action at the West Point Open. under the leadership of new head coach Kip Simons, Mitchell Larios led the vault group as he tied his career-high with a 15.2 result that was first. His individual event-qualifying performance was backed up by Jonny Tang's own qualifying score of 14.35. David Frick at 14.25, Noah Beeman at 14.2 and Andy Jones, who recorded a 14.0 in his first collegiate competition.

Once again Larios was the team leader on parallel bars as he posted the third-best score in the event with a mark of 14.8, a new career high.

The duo of Tang and Larios led the floor exercise team with qualifying efforts of 14.65 and 14.5, respectively. In the overall field of competitors, those scores were third and fifth-best.

Josh Gong and Eric Poletti produced successful comebacks on Friday night after missing in action last season. Gong notched a career-high 14.0 to rank third, while Poletti was 0.05 points back in fifth at 13.95.

Navy's pommel horse team produced the final individual event qualifier as Eric Morrison executed his routine with a 14.2 result that was second-best.

Beeman and Tang's team-high score of 13.8 on high bar was only 11th-best. Poletti was close behind the duo with a 13.7 score.

In the all-around competition, Tang finished 2nd, and Beeman was fifth with 81.2 points.

SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE

Springfield College finished fourth at the West Point Open with 403.200 points in their season opener on Friday evening.

Jon Zirna finished fourth in the all-around competition with a 81.850. The senior's night was highlighted as he posted the highest score of the evening on the pommel horse with a 15.100.

The Pride had two of the top eight scores on the parallel bars, as Zirna finished fifth with a 14.550 and Derek Taranto notched a 14.300 to tie for eighth.

Chris Graff had a solid showing on the rings, totaling a 13.900 en route to tying for sixth, while on the high bar, Tucker McClure totaled a 14.200 to finish tied for sixth.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS-CHICAGO

The University of Illinois-Chicago wrapped up competition Sunday evening inside the UIC Pavilion. UIC finished the night with a score of 378.450, while Illinois took the crown with 425.950.

Senior Trent Jarrett was presented with the Edward J. Saleh Memorial Award and Scholarship in front of a crowd of 975. The honor is given to a UIC senior gymnast who best exemplifies academic and athletic excellence representing the UIC men's gymnastics program.

Jarrett led UIC on rings with a 13.350, while Alexander Dumstorf recorded team bests on the floor (14.050) and pommel horse (12.950).

Scott Poort was a team best on high bar with a 12.500, and Christopher Root scored a 13.350 on parallel bars. Keith Kohn came in on vault with a 13.500 and finished with an All-Around score of 75.550.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

William & Mary opened its 2016 season with a good showing at the State Open at Kaplan Arena on Sunday afternoon, as 4 W/M gymnasts claimed individual event titles.

Aria Sabbagh led the Tribe by winning the high bar (14.4) title and posting the top all-around score (80.05). The impressive mark on high bar represented a career high.

Juan Palma also recorded an outstanding performance in multiple events, as he won the floor title (15.1) and tied for third on vault (14.35).

Keaton Ackerman registered the meet's top mark on pommel horse (13.85) and placed third on high bar (13.2), while Nick Van Dyke tied for first on rings at 13.6.

Freshman Jack Hasenkopf made an impressive collegiate debut by finishing second on parallel bars (13.3) and in all-around (77.15). Griffin Antle (13.8) and freshman David Allen (13.5) also posted second-place efforts on pommel horse and high bar, respectively.

A trio of W&M gymnasts notched third-place finishes – Simon Casey (pommel horse, 13.7), Adam Avant (parallel bars, 13.2) and freshman Peter Makey (rings, 13.4).

BIG TEN CONFERENCE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Illinois claimed the Windy City Invitational title for the second-straight season. The Orange and Blue outlasted Ohio State, who took runner-up honors with a final score of 425.700. Minnesota finished in third place with a score of 424.500 followed by Iowa (419.650), Michigan (413.700) and UIC (378.450).

Brandon Ngai posted a career-high score of 15.550 on PH, The Illini also claimed second and third on the event thanks to Matt Foster's 14.950 and a 14.800 by Logan Bradley.

On rings Alex Diab led the Illini with a score of 14.950 and took home a second place finish in the standings. Max Mayr contributed a 14.000 in the event.

Next on vault, Bobby Baker turned in a 14.900 to tie for eighth place. Chandler Eggleston posted a 14.500 on the event. Diab added a 14.250.

The Illinois parallel bars unit was led by Baker with a score of 14.450, which held on for a second place ranking. Mayr and Johnny Jacobson added marks of 14.200 for a share of fifth place.

On floor exercise Baker registered a 15.000 for a share of third place in the event. Tom Gibbs also broke the top 10, registering a score of 14.300.

Heading into the final rotation UI needed to make up over a point to catch a Minnesota team that would finish on pommel horse. Bradley opened with a 14.300 followed by a 14.050 from Jacobson. Marks of 14.200 from Baker and 13.850 by Diab left final routine in the hands of Eggleston. The redshirt sophomore did not disappoint, turning in a second-place score of 14.900.

In the all-around competition, Baker finished second with a total of 85.350. Diab turned in an 83.600 followed by Gibbs at 82.250.

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

Led by an all-around title by freshman Tristan Burke and three first-place finishes from redshirt sophomore Sean Melton, Ohio State finished second at the 46th-annual Windy City Invitational Sunday at the UIC Pavilion in Chicago.

Ohio State dug itself a hole early, falling to fourth place after three rotations after errors on pommel horse and floor.

Burke was the all-around champion in his college debut with a score of 86.000, defeating 2015 Big Ten Gymnast of the Year Bobby Baker. Burke posted the top team score on floor (14.850) and was one of two Buckeyes to post a 15.000 or higher on vault. Burke became the first Buckeye to win the Windy City all-around title since Randy Monahan in 2004.

Melton – A redshirt sophomore from Orlando, Fla., Melton finished first overall on three events: rings (15.450), vault (15.350) and parallel bars (15.100). His scores on rings and vault rank second in the NCAA so far this year.

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

Penn State captured their third-straight title at the 25th Annual West Point Open Friday, Jan. 15. The title marks the 18th time that Penn State has won the event in its 25-year history.

The Nittany Lions bested their score from a week prior, posting a 424.850, while Army West Point placed second with a 416.350 and Navy picked up the third-place finish with a 415.800.

Dominic DiFulvio picked up the All Around title with a score of 83.400, while senior Alexis Torres nabbed two individual titles, including the high bar with a score of 14.700 and the floor exercise with a final tally of 15.050.

Also winning two events was Leroy Clarke, Jr. who notched the still rings title with a 14.550 and the parallel bars title with a 15.100.

Penn State opened the meet on the pommel horse with a third, fourth and fifth-place finish from Ben Cooperma (14.15), Colin Coates (13.95), and Clarke, respectively.

Moving to the still rings, Penn State grabbed the top-two finishes with a title 14.550 performance from Clarke followed by a 14.350 from Noah Roberson.

In the vault sophomore Joshua Smith had a career-best 15.050 to take second-place, freshman Wyatt Tyndall qualified for the individual final with a 14.650 and a fourth-place finish.

On the parallel bars Clarke secured a season best 15.100 and Torres posted a 14.900 to finish 1 and 2.

Torres won both the floor exercise and the high bar, while freshman Michael Burns tied for second on the high bar with a 14.500 and Clarke placed fifth with a 14.3000.

In the final event, floor exercise, Torres placed first, and DiFulvio placed 5th with a 14.500. Penn State competed without Trevor Howard.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

The University of Minnesota placed third out of six teams at the 46th annual Windy City invitational at the UIC Pavilion with an overall score of 424.500.

On the Still Rings. Paul Montague Jr. posted a team high 14.750, and finished in a three -way tie. Duran tallied a 14.500 and sophomore Shashank Yallamraju earned a 14.350.

The Huskers finished with a team score of 74.000, their best event of the night.

Lottman led the team on the PH event with a 14.600, with help from Castro's 14.100.

NU switched to still rings next. Leal marked a 14.000. Epperson led the team on a second event of the night, with another personal-best score of 14.800.

On vault Chamberlain, paved the way for NU with a score of 14.650. Adamsick and K. King came next with 14.100 and 14.300 respectively. Leal added to his successful night with a score of 14.400, while Magsam finished the event with a personal best of 14.150.

On parallel bars Chamberlain was the team leader with a 15.150 on the event. Leal fueled the Huskers with his score of 14.550. A. Stephenson's score (14.200).

A. Stephenson was the only all-around competitor for the Huskers and earned fifth place with a score of 82.800.

UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

The University of Iowa opened its 2016 regular season at the 46th Windy City Invitational to a fourth place (419.650) finish inside the UIC Pavilion on Sunday afternoon.

The Hawkeyes started off slow on parallel bars. Cory Paterson and Jack Boyle both led the team with matching scores of 13.800 to finish 11th in the overall standings.

Cory Paterson was locked in for his first high bar routine of the season, scoring 14.900 to lead the team. The 2014 Canadian national champion on high bar's score earned him a fifth place result overall. Matt Loochtan followed Paterson's score up with a 14.500.

Boyle led the way with a 14.400 effort on floor exercise, followed by freshman Jake Brodarzon's 14.050.

Iowa moved to pommel horse for the fourth rotation, where Emmanuel Monroy led the team with a 14.400, followed by Del Vecchio Orozco (14.300).

Iowa headed to rings for the fifth rotation. Andrew Botto led the way with a 14.750 effort, followed by Loochtan (14.650).

Mark Springett set a new career high on vault with a 14.900, Loochtan put up another solid score with a 14.700, and freshman Todd Beyer II scored a 14.150 in his first collegiate competition.

Loochtan was the lone Hawkeye to compete all-around. He placed third overall with an 84.100 effort.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

The University of Michigan debuted seven freshmen and marked a team score of 413.700 to take fifth at the 43rd Windy City Invitational Sunday (Jan. 17) at UIC Pavilion.

Starting on vault, led by Emyre Cole with a 15.15(3rd place). Anthony McCallum followed with a 15.30 (2nd place). Anthony Stefanelli marked a 15.00 for fifth.

U-M struggled on parallel bars in rotation two before moving to high bar in the third rotation. Nolan Novak, competing for the first time on the bar in his U-M career, marked a team-best 14.15.

Floor exercise saw Stefanelli secure a 14.60 to take fifth, but Cole once again showed out on his routine, scoring a 14.65 for a fourth-place finish. Redshirt freshman Marty Strech, competing in the all-around as an exhibition scorer, marked a 14.30.

Michigan was forced to count several falls on pommel horse. Belanovski and Novak (14.00) tied for the team lead.

U-M concluded on still rings, with a third-place 14.75 from Colin Mahar and a ninth-place finish from Belanovski (14.55).

MPSF CONFERENCE UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Top-ranked Oklahoma opened its 2016 season with a strong performance on Saturday evening at the Rocky Mountain Open. The Sooners posted a team score of 448.550 to claim the title for the 17th straight season.

OU's total finished comfortably ahead of Air Force (424.700), Nebraska (420.300), Arizona State (403.650), the OU club team (399.700) and Washington (392.250).

Oklahoma's talent was evident all night, as the Sooners claimed all-six individual event titles plus the all-around. Thao Hoang (rings), Hunter Justus (vault), freshman Yul Moldauer (parallel bars), Sergey Resnick (pommel horse), Colin Van Wicklen (floor) and Josh Yee (high bar) each earned first-place finishes. Moldauer, who was making his collegiate debut, took the all-around title with a 90.150 and Justus came in second with an 88.000.

Freshman Yul Moldauer made quite a splash in his collegiate debut, winning the event title on parallel bars and taking the all-around title.

On pommel horse. The Sooners were anchored by a career-high mark of 15.200 from Resnick and strong routines from Bower (14.700), Oyama (14.300) and Yee (14.250, a career high).

On rings Hoang led the way for Oklahoma with a 15.300 while Justus and Moldauer scored 15.250 and 15.150 respectively.

In the vault event Justus had a career-high 15.550. The mark shattered the previous Rocky Mountain Open record of 15.100 set by Bower in 2015. Justus was followed by four more solid vaults from Hoang (15.100, a career high), Oyama (15.150), Moldauer (15.200) and Bower (15.300).

On parallel bars the Sooners got strong contributions from Bower (14.950), Oyama (14.900) and Justus (14.700) before Moldauer notched a 15.600 to tie the Rocky Mountain Open record, set by Resnick in 2014.

On the Sooners' penultimate rotation, high bar, Yee led the way with a career-high 14.750. Freshmen Levi Anderson (14.700) and Genki Suzuki (14.450) were also very impressive.

On floor exercise Colin Van Wicklen anchored the Sooners with a 15.900. OU also got high marks from Justus (15.650), Anderson (15.300), Oyama (15.450) and Moldauer (15.600).

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

Stanford continued their solid start Saturday night. The Cardinal took the title with a team score of 438.050 followed by Cal at 426.950 and SC United at 365.900. The Cardinal collected team and individual wins in five of six events.

The Cardinal came out red-hot on floor with Gabe Flores notching a 15.650 and Taylor Seaton collecting a 15.150, both career bests. Akash Modi stepped up for a 15.600.

Stanford kept the momentum up headed into pommel horse with Andrew Misiolek leading the way with a 14.500 score.

The Cardinal kept on pace on rings with Dennis Zaremski took home the individual title with a 15.850. Josiah Eng kept on his phenomenal season, nailing a 15.250.

Taylor Seaton stepped up again in vault to claim the individual title with a 15.150, followed with Gabe Flores' 14.650.

The Cardinal fired back in the parallel bars though with Dennis Zaremski crushing a 15.050 score for his third individual title of the year. Akash Modi gave Stanford a boost to the team title with a 14.950.

Stanford closed out the night with Akash Modi tying a career-best 15.100 on high bar while Robert Neff posted a 14.700. Drew Burton continued the Cardinal's solid performance with a career-best 14.400.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

California began their home season on Saturday night at Haas Pavilion in Berkeley with a second place finish at the second annual Cal Benefit Cup with a total team score of 426.950. Stanford captured the team title with a score of 438.050, and Southern California United was third with 365.900.

Kevin Wolting led the way for California in the all-around competition, posting a score of 87.150, while freshman Aaron Mah had a breakout performance, scoring no lower than 14.650 on any of his three events.

The Bears came out firing on all cylinders on floor exercise in the first rotation, posting a near program-best score of 75.000. Mah was very impressive, tallying a 14.850, while the final three competitors posted scores of 15.10 (Nico Del Junco), 15.200 (Kyle Zemeir) and 15.450 (Wolting).

California slowed a bit on pommel horse. However, Wolting tallied the high-score on the night for the Bears, with a routine that garnered a 14.800. Kevin Tran posted a 14.500.

Wolting led the way on rings with a score of 14.150, but the Bears bounced back on vault. Kevin Ko and Tran each tallied 14.700's, while Mah posted a 14.750, Zemeir earned a 14.800 and Wolting led the team with a 14.850.

The Bears were led again by Wolting with a 14.250 on parallel bars. Ko's routine garnered a 14.100 from the judges, and Zemeir added a 14.050.

Gagik Gharibyan carried the Bears with a team-high 14.700 on high bar. Mah scored a 14.650, Yordan Aleksandrov tallied a 14.550 and Ko posted a 14.200.

AIR FORCE ACADEMY

Air Force kicked off a new era (Jan. 16) during a strong runner-up performance at the annual Rocky Mountain Open, which was held in front of a standing room-only crowd at the Academy’s Cadet West Gym. The Falcons, under the direction of first-year head coach Jeff Robinson, registered its second-highest season-opening score ever (424.700) to finish second in the six-team competition.

Highlighted by a runner-up score of 14.850 on the pommel horse, Tim Wang paced the Falcons with three top-three finishes. In addition to his second-place finish on the pommel horse, Wang also tied for third on the vault with the second-highest score of his career (15.200) and finished third his return to the all-around (87.000).

Denis Aurelius earned three top-10 finishes, placing seventh on the still rings (14.550), eighth on the vault (14.800). Arinn Wade placed seventh on the pommel horse (14.150), Chase Cannon finished seventh on the high bar (14.200).

Air Force’s freshmen made an immediate impact on the squad, as the newest class of gymnasts combined for 18 of the team’s 36 routines and three top-10 finishes. Christian Kalustian became just the fourth Falcon in program history to break the 15-point mark on the vault, as he registered the fourth-highest score in program history (15.100) to finish sixth on that event in his collegiate debut. Casey Branin and Jonah Urlaub added top-10 marks in their respective events, as Branin finished seventh on the parallel bars (14.400) and Urlaub earned the same placement on the pommel horse (14.150).
