

COLLEGE GYMNASTICS ASSOCIATION ECAC, BIG TEN & MPSF CONFERENCE

Men's Weekly Reports

February 28, 2016

Compiled by Jerry Wright

TOP TEAM SCORES

THIS PAST WEEK		Army	413.85
Oklahoma	447.55	Springfield	399.85
Stanford	444.60	William/Mary	395.10
Iowa	431.15	Ill-Chicago	375.20
Minnesota	431.10
Air Force	427.50	NOTE: See page 5 for
Penn State	424.00	Stanford's International
Nebraska	423.30	Challenge results.
Navy	420.15
California	419.50

MPSF CONFERENCE

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

The University of Oklahoma (No.1) bested No. 4 Minnesota 447.550-431.100 inside the McCasland Field House on Saturday night. The Sooners' team score was their second-highest total of the year.

Oklahoma also took home five event titles and won the all-around on the night. Freshman Yul Moldauer won floor (15.900) and parallel bars (15.750), Sergey Resnick took pommel horse (15.400), Thao Hoang won rings (15.550), and Colin Van Wicklen claimed the high bar (15.500) and all-around (86.500) titles.

OU kicked off the meet on floor where it turned in a team total of 77.800, just one tenth off its season high. Freshman Levi Anderson (15.450), Hunter Justus (15.750) and Moldauer all notched career-best performances in the event. Van Wicklen anchored the Sooners with a 15.850 to cap off Oklahoma's sensational floor performance.

On pommel horse the Sooners were paced by a career-best 15.300 from Resnick in the No. 2 position. Moldauer followed Resnick with a career high of his own, posting 14.850, before Allan Bower anchored the rotation with a 15.250.

All five Sooner gymnasts stuck their dismounts and each earned at least a 15.000 to push OU to a team total of 76.150 on the rings, its best of the year. Hoang led the way for OU with a career-best 15.550. Moldauer also turned in an exceptional routine, scoring 15.400 to tie his own career high.

Yee turned in the best vault for Oklahoma with a 15.100. Bower was also strong, scoring a 15.050. Oklahoma would rebound in the fifth frame, scoring a 74.500 on parallel bars. The first four Sooners all posted solid totals in the high 14s before Moldauer capped the rotation, as he has all season, with a huge routine of 15.750.

The Sooners regained the energy they had early in the meet with a spirited rotation on high bar. OU got a career-best performance from Van Wicklen (15.500) and strong routines from Anderson (15.200) and Yee (14.850).

STANFORD UNIVERSITY

In front of a packed Burnham Pavilion, the No. 2 Stanford (444.60) stepped up to best Canada (434.70), Finland (411.00), No. 9 California and Japan (444.25) – the reigning World Gymnastics Champion - in a nail-biting finish Saturday night.

The Cardinal started the night off on pommel horse as Akash Modi threw down a 15.250 to take second in the event with Drew Willoughby adding in a 15.000 score for a third place finish.

Next up on the rings, Dennis Zaremski crushed a 15.250 to tie for the event title while Jordan DeClerk took third with a 15.050 before Josiah Eng tied for fourth with a 14.700 score.

On the vault the Cardinal was phenomenal as it took first and second overall in the event with Taylor Seaton nailing a 15.400 to tie his career best and take the individual title. Akash Modi pulled in next with a 15.350 for second in the event. The Cardinal ran away with the team title with a 75.050 score, a team best for the season.

Stanford continued in parallel bars with Dennis Zaremski taking second with a 15.650 score that Akash Modi was right behind, notching a 15.550 score for third. Japan took three of the top five scores, but as a team the Cardinal was able to take the team win with a 74.800 score.

Japan made a meet of it by winning high bar, though Brian Knott shone through for Stanford with a 15.050 score to post a season-best in the event.

It came down to the final event of the night with Japan leading by 1.050 as Stanford headed to floor and Japan to the vault. Akash Modi helped cement the win with his 15.600 score to tie for second overall. It was Gabe Flores with a 15.200 and Robert Neff with a 15.100 to ice the win.

In the all-around Akash Modi kept on his dominant season, taking his fourth all-around victory on the year (90.85) against some of the world's best.

AIR FORCE ACADEMY

11th-ranked Air Force tallied a season-high team score of 427.500 – the eighth-highest total in program history – to defeat No. 19 Illinois-Chicago (374.150) on Friday, Feb. 26, at the Academy's Cadet West Gym.

In the first meet of the year to feature the "five-up, five-count" scoring system, Air Force swept the event titles. Tim Wang picked up a pair of first-place finishes, scoring a 15.200 to win the vault and a career-best matching tally of 14.750 to win the parallel bars. Chase Cannon and Aaron Nubine took first on the high bar (14.850) and floor exercise (14.650), while Denis Aurelius won the still rings (14.650) and Arinn Wade claimed top honors on the pommel horse following a season-high performance of 15.450.

In addition to their event titles, Wang placed second on the pommel horse (15.100) and Aurelius finished third on the vault (14.500). Fletcher Braunton added runner-up honors on the still rings (14.700), while the Falcons' freshmen contingent combined for eight placements within the meet's top three.

Jonah Urlaub finished second on both the floor exercise (14.350) and parallel bars (career-best 14.200), while collecting career-best scores to finish third on the pommel horse (14.450) and still rings (14.500). Eric Klein scored a career-high 14.400 to finish second on the high bar, while Christian Kalustian finished third with a score of 14.150. Ryan Girouard finished third on the floor exercise (14.250), while Jake Stanley scored a 13.850 to finish third in his parallel bars debut.

In addition to the season-high team score of 427.500, the Falcons also posted their highest tally of the year on the pommel horse (72.650) to move into third on the Academy's all-time list. Air Force also accounted for its second-highest vault score of the year (73.050) – a tally that is ranked sixth on the program's top-10 list.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

The California Golden Bears finished with a team total of 419.500 on Saturday at the International Collegiate Challenge at Stanford University, placing fourth overall. Stanford won the meet with a total of 444.600, edging the national team of Japan, who finished with a score of 444.250. National teams from Japan, Canada, and a combination of Finland, South Africa and the United States.

Yordan Aleksandrov competed in the all-around competition, posting a career-best total of 85.400, hitting six-for-six routines, as did Ryan Patterson, who competed with South Africa, and an all-around total of 84.650. Kevin Wolting and Kyle Zemeir were given lighter loads on the evening following their strenuous week in Las Vegas at the Winter Cup Challenge.

California opened the meet on high bar, Gagik Gharibyan posting a 14.750, which led the team. Aleksandrov and freshman Nathaniel Ramil each garnered scores of 14.300.

The Bears had a good showing on floor exercise paced by freshman Aaron Mah, who set a new career-high with a 14.950. Redshirt freshman Michael Rauchwerger had the 14.150, while Aleksandrov notched a 14.300 and Nicholas Del Junco earned a 14.500.

On pommel horse, Takahiro Kawada carried the rotation with a score of 14.850. Adam Young posted a new career-best on the apparatus with a score of a 13.650.

Aleksandrov led the Bears on still rings with a 14.450. Freshman Bailey Chang had a tremendous performance on rings, setting a new career-best with a 14.200. Gharibyan also hit with a routine score of 14.100.

The Golden Bears were led by Wolting on the vault, in his only event of the night, scoring a 15.050. Aleksandrov also was fantastic on vault, with 14.600. Rauchwerger was impressive as well with a 14.550.

Aleksandrov put an exclamation mark on his career-best evening with a 14.950, which was just a tenth and a half shy of his best on parallel bars. Gharibyan hit again with a 14.250, which is also a career-high. Mah finished his night with a 14.000, fourth place overall.

AIR FORCE ACADEMY-2-28-16

Chase Cannon and Aaron Nubine each claimed three event titles this afternoon (Feb. 28), as the 11th-ranked Air Force completed a season sweep of 19th-ranked Illinois-Chicago. The Falcons, who earned a 403.400-375.200 victory over the visiting Flames, experimented with their lineup and saw many freshmen in the five-man rotation of each event.

In addition to a winning high bar routine (15.400) that was just 0.050 shy of his own Academy record, Cannon won the pommel horse (14.300) and parallel bars (13.800).

Nubine, who tied for first on the vault (14.550) with freshman Jonah Urlaub, earned outright titles on the floor exercise (14.700) and still rings (14.600).

The juniors paced a line-up that saw 20 of its 21 remaining routines contested by first-year gymnasts.

In addition to his share of the vault title, Urlaub added top-three finishes on the still rings (14.300, second) and floor exercise (14.300, third). Michael Graft, who missed his freshman season due to injury, finished third on the vault (14.500) and fourth on the parallel bars (13.400). Freshman Lukas Teixeira also earned a pair of top-five marks on the day, as he finished second on the high bar (14.050) and fifth on the vault (13.800).

Fellow freshman Eric Klein finished fourth on the high bar with a score of 13.350, while classmates Troy Mather and Christian Kalustian finished fourth (14.100) and fifth (13.950), respectively, on the still rings. In his only event of the day, Arinn Wade returned to the high bar lineup and finished third with a score of 13.700.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

The 7th-ranked University of Iowa returned to action on Saturday afternoon, defeating No. 6 Nebraska and No. 8 Penn State inside the UI Field House. The Hawkeyes took the top spot with an overall team score of 431.150, followed by Penn State (424.000) and Nebraska (423.300). For the first time this season, the teams competed in a five-up, five-count format.

Iowa began the meet on floor exercise and set a new season-high team score of 73.950. Matt Loochtan tied for the lead on the event matching a season-high with a score of 15.350. Jack Boyle notched a 14.900 to tie for fifth, while Dylan Ellsworth set a season-high with a score of 14.750 to finish eighth.

On the second rotation, Iowa headed to pommel horse. In his first competition of the season, Austin Hodges led the Hawkeyes, tying for second on the event with a 14.500 effort. Del Vecchio Orozco posted a 14.250, placing sixth, followed by senior Doug Sullivan in seventh place (14.100).

Iowa continued to dominate on rings, taking the top two spots. Loochtan and Boyle tied atop the leaderboard on the event with a 15.150. Andrew Botto tied for fifth, posting a score of 14.500.

On vault, Ellsworth notched second place result with a 14.900. David Spanier placed eighth for Iowa with a 14.600, while Mark Springett and Loochtan tied for 10th with scores of 14.500.

Iowa took the top two spots on parallel bars. Loochtan and Ellsworth tied for first on the event, posting matching scores of 14.850. Cyrus Dobre-Mofid notched a fifth place finish on the event with a 14.450.

On high bar, Loochtan recorded his second straight event title with a 14.450. Dobre-Mofid finished in third place on the event with a score of 14.300.

Loochtan used a career-high 86.400 to win the all-around, followed by Boyle who posted an 84.850 score.

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

The No. 4 University of Minnesota fell to the top-ranked Oklahoma Sooners on the road, 447.550-431.100.

Minnesota started the day on Pommel Horse. Paul Montague led the Gophers with a 14.350, placing fifth. Freshmen Vitali Kan and Ryan Wangler earned a 14.100 and 13.900, respectively.

On Floor, Zach Liebler tallied a 15.600, the second highest score in program history on the event. Alex Wittenberg finished with a 15.200 and Jalon Stephens earned a 14.750.

The Gophers moved to Vault for the third rotation. Yaroslav Pochinka claimed first place with a 15.250. Liebler placed fourth with a 15.050, followed by freshman Michael Harris in fifth with a 15.000.

POCHINKA

On Still Rings, freshman Justin Karstadt led the Gophers with a 14.600. Pochinka and Montague each tallied scores of 14.350.

In the fifth rotation, High Bar, Stephens claimed second with the third highest score in program history, 15.200. Danny DiBenedetto notched a 14.650 followed by freshman Shaun Herzog, who tallied a 14.400.

Minnesota headed to Parallel Bars for the final rotation of the night. Karstadt notched a 15.250, which earned him second in the event. Stephens and Montague tallied scores of 14.750 and 14.200, respectively.

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

Penn State placed second in a Big Ten Conference tri-meet against Iowa and Nebraska Saturday, Feb. 27. The Nittany Lions scored a 424.000, falling to Iowa, who notched a 431.150 and defeating Nebraska, who earned a 423.300.

Trevor Howard led the Nittany Lions with his second-straight vault title, while Leroy Clark, Jr. placed third on two events and Michael Burns nabbed the second-place finish on the high bar.

Starting on still rings Dominic DiFulvio placed third overall with a career-high 15.050. Clarke notched a 14.950 for a fourth-place finish. Alexis Torres rounded out the top three scorers with a 14.400 on the still rings.

HOWARD

Moving to the floor, Christian McSwain earned the third-place finish with a 15.200 and Torres nabbed his second ninth-place finish of the day with a 14.600. Finally, Howard tied for 10th overall after working his way back from an injury.

On the pommel horse, Clarke stepped up to tie for second with a 14.500, while McSwain rounded out the top five scorers on the apparatus with a 14.300.

Penn State came up with a huge set on the vault, scoring a 73.850 using a victory from Howard. Since returning from injury just two weeks ago, Howard has captured two vault titles, including earning a 15.200 against Iowa and Nebraska. Jeremy Munn earned a career-best 14.850 and a third-place finish. Finally, Wyatt Tyndall and Torres tied for fifth with a 14.700.

The Nittany Lions struggled on the parallel bars, notching only a 67.950 with Clarke placing a team-best third overall with a 14.700. DiFulvio notched a sixth-place finish with a 14.350.

Burns continued to be leader on the high bar event, earning a 14.400 and a second-place finish, while Tyndall placed fifth with a 14.000.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

Nebraska had two gymnasts claim individual titles in its triangular meet against conference-opponents Iowa and Penn State on Saturday afternoon. Ethan Lottman placed first on pommel horse, while sophomore Kyle King tied for first on floor. As a team, the Huskers took third with a total score of 423.300. The Hawkeyes claimed first place (431.150), while the Nittany Lions took second (424.000).

On pommel horse Antonio Castro tied his personal-best score of 14.50. Lottman was the final competitor and proved his All-American status posting a 15.45.

LOTTMAN

The team moved to rings, where Joshua Everitt and Austin Epperson both posted scores of 14.45. Irick and Stephenson each earned a 13.85 for their routines. Alex Magsam led the Huskers on the event, receiving a 14.50.

On floor King, who broke the school record on the event earlier in the season, led the team with a 15.35. Connor Adamsick broke his career-best score with a 15.00. Stephenson and Epperson added scores of 14.90, while Sam Chamberlain finished with a 14.00.

On parallel bars Stephenson and Epperson posted 14.70 and 14.30, respectively.

Castro led the team with his score of 14.15 on high bar. Epperson pitched in a 13.65.

Nebraska finished the day on vault. Stephenson paved the way for the Huskers with a 14.80, while King and Chamberlain posted a 14.70 and 14.55, respectfully. Magsam earned a 14.40.

Stephenson was Nebraska's only all-around competitor and he placed third with a score of 84.20.

ECAC CONFERENCE
U.S. NAVAL ACADEMY

Navy closed its slate of home meets in Macdonough Hall for 2016 with a double-digit victory over William & Mary, 420.15 to 409.60 on Senior Day (Feb. 21, 2016).

Apologies to Navy and William/Mary...this reporter accidentally missed this meet last week. !!

Jonny Tang led Navy with three event wins as he posted the top scores in the all-around, parallel bars and high bar competitions. The quartet of Mitchell Larios, Michael Dorsey, Eric Poletti, Pa.) and Andy Jones rounded out the group of victorious Midshipmen. Poletti set a program-record on his way to the win on the rings.

TANG

On vault Jones led the way with a career-high 14.75 result. Larios trailed his teammate with a 14.65. Tang and Noah Beeman were the third and fourth scorers with 14.35 and 14.30, respectively. The fifth scoring position was held by Zac Ceroli and David Frick, who posted identical 14.25's.

The Mids' floor ex was led by a pair of 15.0-plus scores as Larios and Tang finished first and second with respective routines of 15.2 and 15.1. Jacob Moses gave Navy a sweep of the top-three spots with a 14.3. Beeman rounded out the Mids' group of top-five finishers with a tie for fifth at 14.15.

On the rings. Poletti fronted the effort with a program-record 15.3 score. Connor Gonzales followed up at 14.95. Josh Gong made it a top-three sweep as he also set a career-high with a 14.4.

On the high bar Tang led the way with a personal-high 14.9 result. Fornek turned in a 14.2-point score. Beeman tied for third overall with a 14.2.

CONTINUED NEXT PAGE

On the p-bars, Tang set a personal-high with an event-best 14.5. Larios followed up Tang with a 13.4-point effort to finish fourth overall. On the pommel horse, Dorsey won the event with a career-high 14.15.

At the conclusion of the meet, Tang finished atop the leaderboard in the all-around competition with a score of 85.2.

Prior to the competition between the ECAC rivals, the Navy program celebrated and honored its 10-man senior class. The Class of 2016 is made up of the follow members ... Zac Ceroli, Michael Dorsey, David Frick, Josh Gong, Connor Gonzales, Mitchell Larios, Eric Morrison, Jacob Moses, Eric Poletti, Connor Westrick.

ARMY WEST POINT

Jesse Glenn of the Army West Point led his fellow seniors in the final home meet of the season capturing two of the individual events along with winning all-around in an ECAC triangular sweep Saturday at Gross Sports Center.

The No. 13 Black Knights (3-2, 2-1 ECAC) recorded a score of 413.85 en route to defeating league rivals No. 15 Springfield College (399.85) and No. 14 William & Mary (395.10).

Glenn was first on vault with a 14.75, topped the field on high bar behind a career-high 15.4, along with capturing all-around (85.70). He took second on floor exercise (14.3) and posted a pair of third place finishes on pommel horse (14.3) and rings (13.9).

Plebe Cole Casanova won still rings (14.15), was second on vault (14.55), third on high bar (14.25), all season highs, and went on to finish second in all-around (83.70). Elliott Herman rounded out the Black Knight winners in claiming medalist honors on high bar posting a score of 14.35, just two-tenths of a point shy of his career high. He also was third on still rings (13.90).

Sam Kusnitz was second on high bar (14.3) along with a pair of fifths on vault (14.30) and parallel bars (13.20). Leo Genders was fourth on floor exercise (13.90) and vault (14.40) and Nathan Goff turned in that finish on high bar (14.20).

Joe Pritts posted a season-high 14.45 on vault to place third, and Andrew Hufnagel tied for fourth on pommel horse (14.05). Elijah-Jay Phelps, competing in just his third meet this season, was fourth on parallel bars (13.30) and set a season mark 13.55 on pommel horse.

SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE

Led by an impressive performance from senior Jon Zirna Springfield College split with Army and William and Mary on West Point on Saturday afternoon.

Army posted the meet's top score with a 413.850, while the Pride notched a team score of 399.850 and William and Mary followed with a score of 395.100.

Zirna started the day tying his season-high score of 13.750 in the floor exercise, before finishing first overall on the pommel horse with a score of 15.050, and tying for the top spot on the parallel bars with a score of 13.700.

Joshua Dieker posted a second-place finish on the rings with a season-best score of 14.100, while Philip Ordonez registered a third-place finish with a score of 14.050 on his floor routine.

Nick Jama posted a season-best score of 13.750 in the floor exercise, while Tucker McClure notched a career-best score of 12.950 on the rings. Additionally, freshman Jannik Haas produced a career-best score on the vault, a 14.000.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

William & Mary placed third at a tri-meet hosted by Army on Saturday afternoon (2-27-16). The host Black Knights claimed the team title with a 413.85 and were followed by Springfield (399.85) and W&M (395.1).

Aria Sabbagh highlighted the Tribe's performances by tying for first on parallel bars with a 13.7, while Griffin Antle placed second on pommel horse with a 14.7. Sabbagh also posted the team's top mark on high bar (13.65) and vault (14.25), which placed him fifth and sixth, respectively, overall in those events.

Keaton Ackerman led the College on floor (13.25) and tallied the squad's second-best marks on vault (14.2) and high bar (13.65).

Nick Van Dyke recorded W&M's top score on rings and placed fifth overall with a 13.85.

Freshman Jacopo Gliozzi (14.05) and Simon Casey (13.85) also registered impressive efforts on pommel horse and placed tied for fourth and tied for seventh overall.

COLLEGE OF WILLIAM AND MARY

William & Mary equaled its best score of the season but fell at Navy, 420.15-409.6, on Sunday afternoon (2-21-16).

Aria Sabbagh was W&M's top all-arounder and placed second by equaling a career high (81.35), while Griffin Antle finished second on pommel horse (13.85) and third on parallel bars (13.6).

Rob Meyer placed second on parallel bars (14.05), while Keaton Ackerman (14.3) and Simon Casey (13.75) finished third on floor and pommel horse, respectively. Ackerman's score set a career high.

Mitchell Campbell and freshman David Allen tied for third on high bar with a 14.2, which established career bests for both gymnasts in the event.

In addition to Sabbagh, freshman Jack Hasenkopf competed as an all-arounder and placed fourth with a career-high 79.4.

Other notable performances included Meyer (14.2) and Nick Van Dyke (13.95) on rings, as both recorded career highs in the event.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS-CHICAGO

The University of Illinois-Chicago took on Air Force Friday night (2-26-16) at the Cadet Field House in Colorado Springs, Colo.; despite their best efforts, the Flames ultimately fell to the Falcons by a score of 427.500-374.150.

"Our injuries are catching up and we had to take a zero on high bar," said head coach Charley Nelson.

Despite the setback and adversity the team faced, the Flames walked away with plenty of highlights from the evening. Pratik Patel and Keith Kohn each achieved personal bests on pommel horse with their scores of 12.150 and 13.000. CJ Patton was a team best on the event with his score of 14.050.

CONTINUED NEXT PAGE

Alex Dumstorf notched a top score of 14.250 on floor exercise, and following suit was teammate Jacob Thurber with a 14.100.

Trent Jarrett produced the top scores for the Flames on the rings with his score of 13.850, as well as on vault with a 13.700.

The Flames wrapped up the evening on p-bars and high bar where freshman Steen Haugsted collected team-high scores of 13.550 and 13.300 on both events.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS-CHICAGO

The University of Illinois-Chicago rounded out their weekend with back-to-back meets against Air Force Academy. The Flames fell to the Falcons (2-28-16) by a score of 403.400 -375.200, but not without executing some highlight performances.

“This may have been our best performance of the year,” said head coach Charley Nelson, “though the score won’t show that because of our injury situation.”

Jacob Thurber finished second on floor exercise with a 14.600 final, while teammate CJ Patton’s score of 14.000 was good for second place on pommel horse. Trent Jarrett just missed second on rings by one tenth with his score of 14.200.

Jarrett and freshman Wes Diveney were best for UIC on vault with their tied score of 13.600. Jarrett also took second on parallel bars with a 13.750, while Steen Haugsted was a team best on high bar with his score of 12.700.

“When we plug Chris Root and Jay Grimes back into the line-up, the Flames should really start to hit their stride. And not a moment too soon as we head into the final stretch of the season,” said Nelson.

International Collegiate Challenge Stanford University: Host

ALL AROUND

1. Akash Modi, Stanford	90.85
2. Wataru Tanigawa, Japan	89.80
3. Seiya Taura, Japan	88.35
4. Oskar Kirmes, Finland	86.85
5. Mathieu Cukassy, Canada	86.50
6. Yordan Aleksandrov, California	85.90
7. Ryan Patterson, Finland	84.65
8. Hugh Smith, Canada	83.65
9. Heikki Niva, Finland	81.95

FLOOR EXERCISE

1. Kenta Chiba, Japan	15.80
2. Modi, Stanford	15.60
2. Hikaru Sato	15.60
4. Scott Morgan, Canada	15.30
5. Gabe Flores, Stanford	15.20
6. Seiya Taura, Japan	15.15
7. Robert Neff, Stanford	15.10
8. Ryan Patterson, Finland	15.00
8. Heikki Saarenketo, Finland	15.00
8. Mathieu Cukassy, Canada	15.00

POMMEL HORSE

1. Wataru Tanigawa, Japan	15.30
2. Akash Modi, Stanford	15.25
3. Drew Willoughby, Stanford	15.00
3. Ken Ikeda, Canada	15.00
3. Ryoma Kawamoto, Japan	15.00
6. Takahiro Kawada, California	14.85
7. Daisuke Suzuki, Japan	14.75
8. Takumi Sato, Japan	14.70
9. Oskar Kimes, Finland	14.65

STILL RINGS

1. Dennis Zaremski, Stanford	15.25
1. Scott Morgan, Canada	15.25
3. Jordan DeClerk, Stanford	15.05
4. Josiah Eng, Stanford	14.70
4. Tanigawa, Japan	14.70
4. Ryoma Kawamoto, Japan	14.70
7. Oskar Kirmes, Finland	14.65
7. Taura, Japan	14.65
9. Cukassy, Canada	14.50

VAULT

1. Taylor Seaton, Stanford	15.40
2. Modi, Stanford	15.35
3. Smith, Canada	15.25
4. Morgan, Canada	15.10
5. Patterson, Canada	15.00
5. Masahiro Ukai, Japan	15.00
3. Kevin Wolting, California	15.05
8. Gabe Flores, Stanford	14.95
9. Hikaru Sato, Japan	14.80

PARALLEL BARS

1. Tanigawa, Japan	15.90
2. Dennis Zaremski, Stanford	15.65
3. Modi, Stanford	15.55
4. Seiya Taura, Japan	15.45
5. Ken Ikeda, Japan	15.05
6. Aleksandrov, California	14.95
7. Cukassy, Canada	14.75
8. Rene Comouyer, Canada	14.65
9. Jackson Payne, Canada	14.50

HORIZONTAL BAR

1. Daisukes Uzuki, Japan	16.15
2. Jackson Payne, Canada	15.60
3. Takumi, Sato, Japan	15.20
4. Kenta Chiba, Japan	15.10
5. Bryan Knott, Stanford	15.05
6. Seaton, Stanford	14.95
7. Taura, Japan	14.90
8. Modi, Stanford	14.75
8. Gagik Gharibyan, California	14.75