BID INFORMATION

EVENT OVERVIEW

The U.S. Classic is a national level event with two competitions conducted at the same time in the same venue. The U.S. Classic competition acts as the national qualifier for the junior and senior elite level athletes to the U.S. Gymnastics Championships. These are the top female gymnasts in the USA. The Hopes Championship competition is for the pre-elite level athletes and serves as their culminating competition of the season. Between the 4 sessions, this event will have 150-175 athletes competing. Athletes, coaches, and officials make up a delegation of approximately 300-400 people from around the country.

USA Gymnastics retains the exclusive rights and privileges to broadcast this event. The final session of US Classic is typically broadcast by NBC Sports.
