Summary of the Meeting held on September 19, 2023

The Athlete Selection Committee met after day one (1) of the competition, September 19, 2023, to discuss the World/Pan Am Games Selection competition. Scores from the competition, along with scores from the 2023 American Classic, 2023 Pan American Championships, 2023 U.S. Classic, 2023 U.S. Championships, and 2022-2023 international competitions were available for reference.

The Committee discussed the results from day one (1) of the World/Pan Am Games Selection Event competition and eliminated any athletes who declined the invitation to compete at the World/Pan Am Games Selection Event. Per the selection procedures, Simone Biles automatically qualified to the 2023 World Championships Team by finishing first in the All-Around after day one (1) of the competition.

Based on the results from day one (1), the committee determined which events they would invite the athletes to verify on day two (2) of the competition. The athletes and coaches were notified by email and text. No athletes made requests to the ASC to show events that were not requested. The requests, in no particular order, were as follows:

- Simone Biles – UB, BB
- Shilese Jones – UB, BB
- Jordan Chiles – UB, BB
- Leanne Wong – UB, BB
- Skye Blakely – UB, BB
- Jade Carey – V, BB
- Lexi Zeiss – UB, BB
- Addison Fatta – FX, BB
- Kaliya Lincoln – UB, BB
- Nola Matthews – UB, BB
- Amelia Disidore – UB, BB
- Kayla DiCello – UB, BB
- Joscelyn Roberson – UB, BB
- Tiana Sumanasekera – UB, BB
- Zoe Miller – UB, BB
- Alicia Zhou – UB, BB
- Eveylynn Lowe – UB, BB
- Madray Johnson – UB, BB

The committee discussed the World Championships replacement athlete possibilities. The committee agreed that the athlete named as the replacement athlete to the World Championships Team will have the option to represent Team USA on the 2023 Pan American Games Team.

When applying the selection criteria to the athletes from day one (1) of the World Selection Event competition, the athletes finishing sixth and seventh in the All-Around have similar pros and cons.

1. The D and E-scores of each athlete are comparable.
2. The athletes exhibit approximately the same hit percentage routine in competition and training.
3. The athletes exhibit exemplary skills in leadership and are excellent contributors to the overall team dynamic.
4. International experience – the seventh place athlete has significantly more international experience than the sixth place athlete, including winning a bronze medal in the All-Around at the 2021 World Championships.
5. The athletes exhibit similar world class presentation, and all are capable of executing the training plan and show readiness to compete on the world stage.

The meeting was adjourned.

Summary of the Meeting held on September 20, 2023

After the completion of competition on day two (2), the ASC met to discuss the final selection. Day two (2) results were provided.

Listed below is a summary of the Top 15 Team Final (3 up, 3 count) scoring scenarios based on the top 3 average scores from the US Championships and the Selection Camp on each apparatus:

- Biles, Blakely, and Jones are included in all Top 15 scenarios.
- All scenarios except the last one (Biles, Blakely, Chiles, Jones, Carey) call for Biles and/or Jones to compete on all 4 events in the Team Final.
- All scenarios call for Blakely to do Uneven Bars and Balance Beam.
- Most of the scenarios with the lowest “4th high – 3rd high” values include Wong because she could compete on any event without a large drop in score based on US Championships and the Selection Camp.
- 5 of the top 6 scenarios call for Lincoln to compete on Floor Exercise only.
- The scenarios including Roberson call for her to compete on Vault or Vault and Floor Exercise.
- The scenarios including Chiles call for her to compete on Vault or Vault and Uneven Bars.
- The scenarios including DiCello call for her to compete on Floor Exercise only.

After reviewing the data and the results from American Classic, Pan American Championships, U.S. Classic, U.S. Championships, and the World Selection Event results from both days of competition, the committee unanimously selected the following.

2023 World Championships Team

Simone Biles
 Skye Blakely
 Shilese Jones
 Joscelyn Roberson
 Leanne Wong
 Kayla DiCello – traveling replacement athlete

2023 Pan American Games Team

Jordan Chiles
 Kayla DiCello
 Kaliya Lincoln
 Zoe Miller
 Tiana Sumanasekera
 Katelyn Jong earned a named individual quota spot for the USA at the 2023 PAG by winning the all-around competition at the 2021 Junior Pan American Games.
 Non-traveling replacement athletes – Eveylynn Lowe, Nola Matthews, Alicia Zhou

The top five (5) athletes in the All-Around from day one (1) exhibit world class medal potential and complement each other's strengths and weaknesses. There was discussion surrounding the replacement athlete, similar to the discussion during day one (1) of the ASC meeting. Additional considerations leading to the selection of the replacement athlete included consistency and readiness to compete. Kayla DiCello was selected as the replacement athlete, in part due to her international experience and her proven consistency in training.

The athletes named to the 2023 Pan American Games Team also exhibit world class medal potential and complement each other's strengths and weaknesses. All athletes selected to the team meet Team USA's standard of excellence required for a World Championships competition.

Once the selection for each competition was complete, the High-Performance Leadership Team along with the ASC met with all athletes and coaches and disclosed the team members.

I confirm that, to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, this report accurately reflects the September 19 and 20, 2023 meetings of the Women's Athlete Selection Committee for the selection of the 2023 World Championships Team.
